

Corporate Entertainment

Let us entertain you

In the competitive world of modern business, valuing your best customers, and wooing new ones, makes sound sense. P&MM can help you show your appreciation in a way that, not only strengthens the relationship further, but helps you get to know your clients even better.

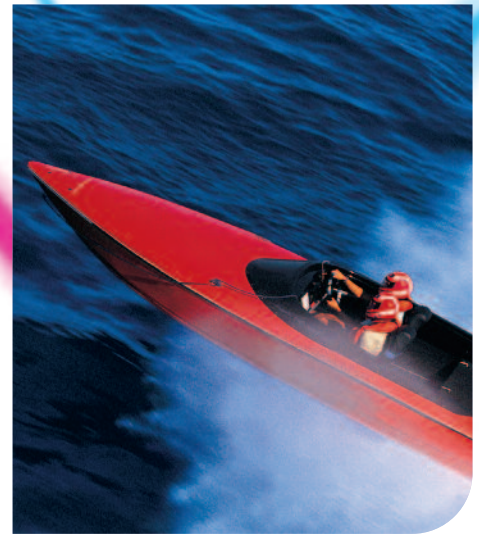

Customers will probably remember who took them to Wimbledon for almost twelve months. They will remember who took them to see humpback whales at play for the rest of their lives. Sporting hospitality can be a good way of getting to know which of your clients like golf, rugby or football, but it won't necessarily help you get to know them.

By giving your clients unique experiences, you will have an unrivalled opportunity to really get to know them and to demonstrate how valuable they are to your business.

For the price of a hospitality package at a major sporting event, you could take your clients:

- Racing Sunseeker power boats off the south coast
- Cooking with a Celebrity Chef
- Land Yachting in Le Touquet
- Swimming with sharks
- Flying in vintage aircraft
- Sailing in Global Challenge yachts
- Off to Rome for a quick pizza
- On a 'shout' with the RNLI
- Skydiving

...Or you could take them to watch the footy.

Making it happen

We can help you with all, or just a few, aspects of corporate hospitality:

- Creative proposals
- Tailor made events and activities
- Supplier negotiation and management
- Guest invitation and communication
- On site management and staffing
- Video
- Financial reconciliation and budget management
- Risk assessment, health and safety

Fresh thinking, inspired concepts and creative solutions
