How it works

Access to Rewardbanking.com is via a secure internet log-in and allows you to manage your total communication, reporting and reward system for any incentive campaign. Rewardbanking.com can also link to your intranet to provide a seamless online system. A standard site can be set up within very short lead times and will enable you to have:

- A site branded to your programme theme/brand identity
- The reward options that specifically suit your audience
- Individual accounts set up for each participant
- A complete communication plan
- Reporting and information to give you complete control of spend
- Rewards and reward payments input in real time
- Participant access to select the rewards they want to the value in their individual account

Rewards for all!

Participants can spend their reward points on a wide range of options:

- Merchandise
- Voucher special offers
- Auctions
- Holidays
- Experience days
- Gifts
- Magazine subscriptions
- Offers of the month

Key features

- High level security to safeguard your data
- Real time information on your campaign
- Flexible, intelligent communications
- Multiple language options
- Easy administration and campaign management
- Online 'shopping basket' ordering system and reward fulfilment

We can personalise and brand your Rewardbanking.com site to suit any business, campaign theme and corporate guidelines.
